Meet Renae-sensei!

I lived in 5 different places before I came to Japan, and last year, I lived in Nagoya.

I wanted to live in Japan because my grandmother is Japanese.

I speak English, Spanish, and Japanese.

I like to try new things and to explore

— I often walk and bike around Motomiya.

I also really like trains, so I often watch trains in Motomiya.

I'm not afraid of Japanese food—I like natto, raw eggs, sushi, soba, umeboshi, and I make my own salt pickles (shiozuke) in winter.

The United States of America
